xiii) BEST RURAL TOURISM PROJECT: One Award

Rural tourism, in particular, has high potential for supporting rural livelihoods through local art and craft heritage and natural environment assets of rural communities. The visitor can thus be provided a unique interactive experience in rural, low-impact settings. Local communities dwelling close to tourist centres can thereby share the benefits of tourist expenditure with active participation in maintaining their assets on which tourism depends. This includes awareness of oral traditions, local archaeological and biodiversity wealth. This presents an opportunity since India still lives significantly in its villages. Where traditional farm based employment is becoming saturated, and rural living conditions need improvement, the strengthening of pride for women, youth, ethnic minorities and the disadvantaged can progress through rural tourism.

Applications to be invited from the Tourism Secretary/DM of the States/UTs.

Applicants for the National Rural Tourism Award must demonstrate:

1. Capability to strengthen rural livelihoods through the tourism process, based on traditional craft, culture and natural heritage with the rural poor as primary target beneficiaries.
2. Employment focus on women and youth.
3. Preservation of nature in all its forms, thereby ensuring its sustainable use for future generations; preservation and propagation of art & crafts and any other form of culture intrinsic to their community of their locality.
4. Support to existing panchayat infrastructure through convergence with local skills, material and vernacular idiom.
5. Training and capacity building in hospitality-related professions such as lodging, cuisine and guiding to enable local community participation in planning and executing their work plans.
6. Coordination with NGO/Implementing Partner, Focal Point (District Collector) and other stakeholders.
7. Convergence of support to existing Panchayat infrastructure with training and Capacity building.
8. Gurukul concept for both domestic and international tourists, enabling them to understand And learn the tradition of rural art and craft; Development of home stay facilities.
